

Fraudcheck for Recruitment Companies

Introduction

Verifying data on a CV is a time consuming and specialised process which requires highly trained staff with access to multiple databases; qualifications, criminal and fingerprint databases and credit reports. The interpretation of data from multiple sources can be a difficult task.

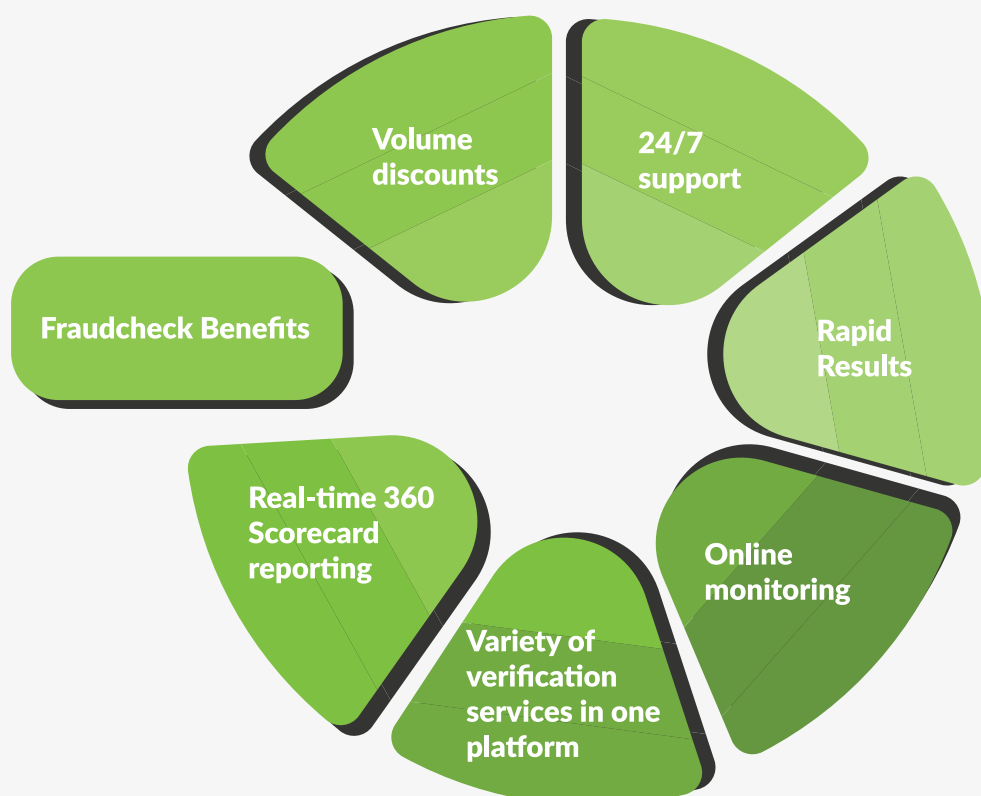

Why Fraudcheck?

Fraudcheck offers you, the recruiter, a comprehensive pre-employment background checking service. Fraudcheck screens personal information provided for a candidate against data obtained from our verification partners.
